

PLEASANT GROVE DEPARTMENT.

(Special Correspondence.)

Pleasant Grove, July 26, 1906.
The 24th of July celebration was in every way a success. The day's festivities began at sunrise by the firing of salutes, which was soon followed by a serenade by the silver band, and by ten o'clock the people were all on the streets to witness the greatest features of the day. The parade was excellent. It consisted of Indians, Pioneers, beautiful floats, squads of horsemen, novelties, etc. Some parts deserve special mention. Wm Adams and A. N. Iversen represented Pioneer and First Settlers Life. During the counter march on Main street they halted and formed a camp. The women produced cooking utensils from the covered wagons and soon had pancakes and bacon sizzling over the sage brush fire. It was quite realistic. Miss Nellie Walters as Utah made a beautiful appearance. She, with her little maids of honor, rode in a white float. On another float were representatives of the nations. The most prominent figure on it was Columbus, represented by one of our fairest young ladies, Miss Lizzie Hansen. Mons Mouson deserves credit for the beautiful float, "Utah As It Is." One of the prettiest features of the parade was a white and gilt chariot drawn by four matched bays. In it rode Ben Hur, dressed in a Roman costume of white and blue. This character was represented by W. King Driggs. Following it was a chariot of a rather ridiculous appearance—the chariot of "Ben Him," personated by Robert Featon. The Horribles gotten up by Junius Hayes were unique as well as "side-splitting." Three floats filled with children represented the Sunday schools of this ward, Lindon, and Manila.

At 2 o'clock the people assembled at grove and listened to some fine orations, speeches, songs and music. D. H. Robinson in his speech on the growth and development of Pleasant Grove, brought forth the greatest applause of the day when he said that this city was unequipped in progress by any of the smaller cities of the state. This declaration was in reply to the criticism offered by many people that this town is rather unprogressive, and to prove his statement he called attention to the fact that many of our people have moved out into the surrounding country and have built up the communities of Lindon and Manila, and while those places are not a part of our city they are an outgrowth of it and should be taken into consideration when reckoning the progress of the town.

After the program sports and games were held and the celebration wound up by a well attended dance in Clarke's hall. What attracted the attention of our people in the afternoon was the big racing race at American Fork between L. W. Lund's stallion, "Mickle," and Willard Chipman's gelding "Tombsone." The former was victorious and the Pleasant Grovers went wild with joy. An immense crowd witnessed the race and a more enthusiastic one never assembled. Lund's victory was not much of a surprise. In fact many were so confident of it that they bet five to one in his favor. This is only one of the many laurels Mickle has taken.

All should visit Wright's new market at Pleasant Grove.

The Alpine Stake quarterly conference was held in the grove Saturday and Sunday. It was well attended and the people were highly edified by the excellent spirit that prevailed and the good speaking. Apostles Reed Smoot and Rudgar Clawson and Elders Spencer and E. S. Hinckley were present. On Saturday afternoon Apostle Clawson encouraged the people in the efforts they were making throughout the Stake to build meeting houses. Prof. Hinckley of the B. Y. University spoke Sunday on behalf of that school and called attention to the new course in agriculture that was to be given there under Dr. Widmer. Sunday evening a young peoples' conference was held in Clark's hall. Apostle Smoot was the principal speaker. His subject was the Spaulding Story in relation to the Book of Mormon. The music during the conference was especially good. The singing was done by the Pleasant Grove choir except on Sunday afternoon when the stake choir of Am. Fork held forth Sunday evening. Solos were rendered by Edith Hindley and W. King Driggs and a piano solo by Effie Harvey.

CHRONIC RHEUMATISM

Positively Cured—Cured Quickly and Permanently by the Use of Kellett's Oil and Sweet Spirits of Eden.

These are the most marvelous remedies of the age. Oil of Eden dissolves and removes through the pores of the skin all impurities. Sweet Spirits of Eden increases the powers of the nerves through the circulation of the blood, thus making every organ of the system perform its proper work. Taken in conjunction, these remedies will cure the worst cases of chronic rheumatism, even of years' standing. Kellett's Oil and Sweet Spirits of Eden are not cheap remedies, but inexpensive cures. They cost the sum of $5.00—a doctor's bill costs much more. Take your choice.

Note the fact that ordinary cases of rheumatism (that is, rheumatism that has not reached the chronic state) may be cured by the use of Oil of Eden alone, which costs but two dollars per bottle. Oil and Sweet Spirits of Eden are put up in small bottles. The remedies are highly concentrated—you do not pay for water.

If you desire further information and proof, drop a post card to the California Co-Operative Medical Company, 906 Broadway, Oakland, Cal., or, better still, purchase two bottles from your druggist and test the goods yourself. For sale by T. J. Wadsworth, druggist.

the throat, an open avenue by which any number of diseases can find their way into the system. It must be remembered that the throat is very susceptible to attack, particularly in this climate, and this fact makes it doubly true that an ounce of prevention is better than a pound of cure. The moment there's anything the matter with your throat, however slight the trouble, attend to it instantly. One of the best remedies for a sore throat is our Diphtheria Remedy. As this medicine may be needed at any time it should always be at hand. Don't forget that our prescription department is the best in Lehi.
